One cannot Not Communicate.

What he wants to say is that communication happens all the time - also if we are not say anything at all. If you don't believe it, try it out yourself! During your next conversation with your friend or partner just stop talking - it will be harder than you expect to keep up the silence for more than five minute or ten seconds, it will be awkward and the person you were having a conversation with will most possibly be confused. This shows that you communicated something - whether that was a lack of interest, ignorance or something else. I am sure that you have also made the following experience. A person is entering the climbing gym and you already knew that he or she is in a bad mood before you have even talked a word with him or her.
